The seeds are missing. The suspects are many. And the world's most absent-minded squirrel detective is on the case! Squirrellock Holmes and her meticulous brother Wantsome investigate the disappearance of sunflower seeds from the neighborhood bird feeder. As they interview a hilarious array of backyard suspects including selfie-loving moles, dreamer tortoises, pun-happy crows, and overly strict garden gnomes, they discover that solving a mystery takes more than just collecting clues... it takes understanding why things happen.

Themes: Courage, Problem-Solving,
Friendship, Curiosity

The thrilling life story of one of America's most fascinating heroines. A curious reporter begins to uncover the story of Amelia's mysterious disappearance, grabbing the audience's attention in the first few moments asking the compelling question, "What happened, Amelia?" The script presents the story in a very theatrical way through headlines of newspaper stories, remembrances, flashbacks and introspective monologues by Amelia as she flies across the Atlantic. American history serves as an educational backdrop, presenting the music, styles and politics of the 1930s and '40s. The actual events leading up to her disappearance are presented in an accurate and engaging way for audiences of all ages.

"The kids LOVED it!!! I was impressed that the 3rd and 4th graders were completely mesmerized and engaged."
-Katie, Kindergarten Teacher

Field Trip @ LCCC March 25th @9:45am

The most enchanting characters are here: Wilbur, the irresistible young pig who desperately wants to avoid the butcher; Fern, a girl who understands what animals say to each other; Templeton, the gluttonous rat who can occasionally be talked into a good deed; and, most of all, the extraordinary spider, Charlotte, who proves to be "a true friend and a good writer." Determined to save Wilbur, Charlotte begins her campaign with the "miracle" of her web in which she writes, "Some pig." It's the beginning of a victorious campaign which ultimately ends with the now-safe Wilbur doing what is most important to Charlotte.
